"Be Free Where You Are" by Thich Nhat Hanh is a non-fiction manual for mindfulness meditation. Thich Nhat Hanh runs a mindfulness meditation center in France, and lived in Vietnam during the Vietnam war. This is one of my favorite books...of all time! It's short. You can finish the entire book in about an hour. But don't let that fool you.

If you want to be free, try to introduce a little spontaneity into your life so you're not tied into the same routine. For example, try a new cuisine or a new activity to step outside of your comfort zone. Consider travelling out of town or to a new country, since free spirits never stay in one place for too long.
