Karin Fossum

Broken is a standalone work of true suspense that blurs the boundaries between fact and fiction and is quite different from the police procedural novels of Fossum which feature Inspector Konrad Sejer. Indeed it is debatable which genre this novel fits into, but either way it is an assault on the sense Karen Fossum is a first-rate crime writer, but "Broken" doesn't fit in that category and isn't really even a mystery. The writing is still excellent (including translation from the Norwegian original), but this is more a meditation on writing fiction and what the responsibilities of being a human being entail.
